

In addition to an engaging curriculum, IVAHS prioritizes relationships, connection and community.

Please join us to celebrate the deep thinking our students have engaged with this year at our Exhibition of Learning, November 18, 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. Witness your child's growth, hear their insights, and engage with our community of learning.

Students receive extra-credit for participating. Unfortunately we will not be able to host our large potluck this year, so eat beforehand. We will have light snacks for sale.

We are looking forward to being in-person for one of our most anticipated events of the year!

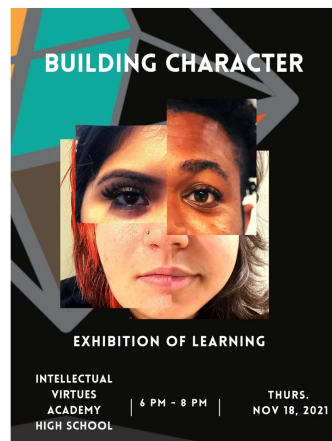

See you there!

Campus Highlights

After learning about aspects of democracy in Mr. Palmer's 21st Century Global Issues class, students created infographics to depict key components. They referenced Understanding the World, a contemplation of infographics and Infographics: The Power of Visual Stories, then students created a first draft. They workshopped their designs and provided one another feedback for improvement.

We then welcomed a Marketing and Creative Professional, Rebecca, to provide content revision strategies to improve their designs.

Come see the final drafts at Exhibition of Learning on November 18, 6:00 p.m.!

IVAHS students welcomed The LGBTQ Center in Long Beach to campus this week! Philosophy and P.E. students studying intersectionality and identity, as well as learning about health and wellness engaged in an activity that built empathy for a range of experiences. They then had a discussion about sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, chosen family, and the LGBTQAI+ community.

Club Day Highlights

There is no power for change greater than a community discovering what it cares about.

These past few months are evidence of how each of our students have contributed to a place that reflects their values, passions, and hopes. For today's CLUB DAY Students dedicated the block to honoring the many successful student-driven clubs we have at IVA high school.

We are all key members of this Academy community. Every single student is encouraged to explore their curiosities and passions in our safe, community- centered environment.
